

GEORGI BANKS-DAVIES

When Georgi was 7 she made a film, then another, and another. In-between there was some school, and film school and some other stuff. Then the BBC asked her to direct some promos and soon after she officially became a part of the three letter gang when CNN came along and flew her all over the place making loads of films for their ad clients. When the air-miles were stacked up enough to fly around the world four times she went it alone doing what she most loves - finding and making stories for all sorts of very nice folk in ad land. And although in life she talks tons, on-screen she's mastered the art of saying it all in a very short period of time. She loves cities and rigging cameras and bikes and soccer and air-miles, yes we're back to air-miles.
