

~~Benjamin~~ Barber ~~tried~~ attempted to explain the clash of Western and non-Western cultures of the world in his Jihad versus McWorld: How the Planet is Both Falling Apart and Coming Together (1996).–

This theme of the combination of unification and fragmentation in society and in media use is also ~~is~~ present in the work of Meyrowitz (1993) –(See Medium Theory and van Dijk (1993, 1991/1999). Van Dijk tries to explain the rise of the new media, such as computer networks and mobile telephony, as important tools for modern life. They enable scale reduction and scale extension, a unitary and a fragmented world and, finally, a world that is both social and individualized (network individualism).–

~~But~~ The theory of modernity is a comprehensive analysis of the main dynamics of modernity, in which ~~discusses the~~ its technological, social, and political ~~elements of modernism~~ aspects are discussed.

~~So~~ Samuel P. Huntington ~~said~~, ~~Modernity bring stable~~ modernity brings stability, but ~~Modernization bring unstable~~ modernization brings instability. His research shows if high modernity developed countries promotes rapid grow up with economic; it development and political stabilization. However, economic growth that is help for their stable of politics. ~~But if grow up too fast with economic in~~ rapid will politically destabilize undeveloped countries, ~~it will bring unstable of politics.~~ For example, lots of Asia ~ Africa many Asian, African, and Latin America American countries, because their ~~economies~~ economies develop too fast, cripple the authoritarian rule and this situation ~~lead unstable~~ leads to the destabilization of politics.–

~~No matter what, during~~ In any case, the ~~process of literature review, we can~~ understand one thing, that is economical develop will emphasize how economic development can promote ~~the~~ democratization. ~~It~~ if it has been developing in a stable state, economic growth ~~for~~ is a positive boost to political stability and democratization in general ~~has shown a positive boost.~~ However, in developing countries, rapid economic growth ~~are~~ is not necessarily the best guarantee of democracy, ~~but in~~ In actual political and economic interaction, there are still many variables that will affect ~~the~~ political and economic development.

This paper used “a "literature analysis method"” and “"historic ladder" in order” to investigate and ~~analysis what~~ analyze the developed policies ~~about of the~~ Thai-Rak-Thai Party, and why Thailand's middle class of ~~Thailand~~ opposed the Thai-Rak-Thai

註解 [Editor1]:

Golden English Editing
Humanities and Social Sciences
Political Science
Sample of work

註解 [Editor2]:

CHECK: I deleted this because I know Giddens and that modernism refers to arts (cultural aesthetics). Perhaps this should be “modernization” instead?

註解 [Editor3]:

CHECK: Please provide a citation here.

Party so strongly, ~~let~~which eventually drove Thaksin finally evolved into the plight of exile.

Political Processprocess

Observations ~~on~~of the political process ~~of~~in Thailand, ~~many scholars think~~ have characterized it as a "vicious cycle". ~~When the~~ " After a coup success of Thailand military, the military elite usually control of political power ~~is usually~~for a period of time, and then form an interim government. ~~Interim~~The interim government's prime minister may be appointed by the military generals or by scholars with a high reputation ~~as scholars~~. ~~After the~~ The coalition government announced the constitution and then elections. After the election and ~~form~~ a new government is formed by the House and Senate members.

The new government is established after a period of time, but conflicts within the various systems will be turned into a political crisis, which is a serious impediment to the normal operation of the new government. ~~Government's~~The government's poor performance, corruption, and the power of both houses ~~of~~in the conflict, ~~resulting in~~ cause the political system ~~does not work~~to malfunction. The military's attitude has become a key factor in political developments ~~around~~, but this time the attitude of the military is often ambiguous.

If the military ~~to intervene~~intervention is immediately announced, ~~the military in~~ the politicaltheir influence within the system ~~enough~~will be sufficient to defuse the political phenomenon of deterioration; but the military often wait ~~for~~until the situation has deteriorated into a political crisis, ~~come~~so their actions only conform to public opinion, ~~to~~ and restore political order. ~~National~~The military justify their political interventions in the interest of national security ~~is the military coup in the form to the best reason to intervene in politics~~. Therefore, the "vicious cycle" process continues to advance, until the next phase of the crisis ~~—~~ a "coup" ~~will~~ inevitably results.